Dear athletes, technicians and parents,

The Olympic sport discipline of Taekwondo WT is a foray into self-knowledge and personal progress. The curriculum of our sport, which has its origin in the way of the Korean people's evolution, is well adapted to the current needs and can be a universal panacea for the construction of future citizens whose personality and knowledge will be able to contribute to solving the current and future problems of society.
Taekwondo WT is also a solution for ensuring personal safety through the self-defense knowledge included in its curriculum been very helpful in the current situation when young people need to ensure their own protection.
I recommend sport and competition in all its forms for the valuable benefits related to communication, adaptation, physical and mental health of the practitioners.
Looking forward to see in Romania

Yours,

Sakis Pragalos
President European Taekwondo Union

Dear all,

Receive our greeting for choosing TAEKWONDO WT to build your strength and way of life in harmony with the value promoted through our Olympic sport curriculum.

The program of European Taekwondo Union beside MNA members is an open window to the international competition after that have to by stop for a while during the pandemic. Now is time to get back your proud and to try your best achieving personal goal on normal scale on the sport performance aspiration.

As you know I'm one of the great supporter of the next generation athlete and their role regarding the expectation of our beloved sport Taekwondo WT as well the future challenges of humanity.

The European Championships for KIDS it is designed to given the chance to all the participants to be in touch with the new rules together with your others chosen athlete find properly way for communication and education that are the most value vectors to get focus in Kyorugi and Poomsae as well.
